

The Pandemic Task Force has decided to extend the closure of the building through Tuesday, January 18, meaning that Sunday's worship service will again be virtual-only. This postponement of our return to in-person worship allows time for the arrival of an order of KN-95 masks for the congregation. FPC appreciates your patience as we continue to reevaluate the situation with the omicron variant and how we can safely be in community together.