Confess to a Forgiving Creator

Call to Confession

Psalms 138: 6

"The Lord God is high, yet regards the lowly, and perceives the haughty from far away." In the confidence of the children of God, let us confess our sin:

Prayer of Confession

Book of Common Worship, PC(USA)

Eternal God, our judge and redeemer, we confess how often we live for ourselves and apart from you. We turn from our neighbors and refuse to bear their burdens. We ignore the pain of the world, and pass by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed. In your great mercy, forgive us and free us from our selfishness. Teach us to choose your will, through Jesus Christ our Savior, in whose name we pray; Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Rom. 8:34; 2 Cor. 5:17

Hear the good news!
Who is in a position to condemn? Only Christ,
and Christ died for us, Christ rose for us,
Christ reigns in power for us, Christ prays for us.
Anyone who is in Christ is a new creation.
The old life has gone; a new life has begun.

Friends, I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ,
our sins are forgiven!

Thanks be to God!

Listen for God's Word

Prayer for Illumination

<https://lectionary.library.vanderbilt.edu/prayers>

Perfect Light of revelation, you shine in Jesus, the Word made flesh, whose epiphany we celebrate. Fill us now with your Word; and then may your truth and compassion shine in us and through us; Amen.

Scripture Reading

Jeremiah 17: 5-8

Thus says the LORD: Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the LORD. They shall be like a shrub in the desert and shall not see relief. They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land.

Blessed are those who trust in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it will not be anxious and will not cease to bear fruit.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Scripture Reading

Luke 5: 17-26

Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people .... They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them. Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

‘Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

‘Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

‘Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

‘Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

‘But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

‘Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

‘Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

‘Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Anthem Texts

"Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above"

Johann Schutz

Tr.: Frances Elizabeth Cox

Sing praise to God who reigns above,
the God of all creation,
the God of power, the God of love,
the God of our salvation.
With healing balm my soul he fills and every faithless murmur stilled:
To God all praise and glory.

The Lord is never far away,
but through all grief distressing,
an ever-present help and stay,
our peace and joy and blessing.
As with a mother's tender hand,
he leads his own, his chosen band:
To God all praise and glory.

Thus all my toilsome way along,
I sing aloud his praises,
that earth may hear the grateful song
my voice unwearied raises.
Be joyful in the Lord, my heart!
Both soul and body bear your part:
To God all praise and glory.

Let all who name Christ's holy name
give God all praise and glory;
let all who own his power proclaim aloud the wondrous story!
Cast each false idol from its throne,
for Christ is Lord, and Christ alone:
To God all praise and glory.

"The Blessing of Aaron"

Numbers 6:24-26

The Lord bless thee, the Lord keep thee, make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee,
The Lord life up his countenance
upon thee,
And give thee peace.
Amen.

Respond to God's Word

Affirmation of Faith

*Second Helvetic Confession 5.117-118
Book of Confessions; PC(USA)*

[Good] works ought not to be done in order [to] earn eternal life ... or for ostentation ... or for gain ... but for the glory of God .... We ... are not created or regenerated through faith in order to be idle, but rather ... without ceasing [to] do those things which are good and useful. For in the Gospel the Lord says that a good tree brings forth good fruit (Matt. 12:33) ....

Prayers of the People

Rev. Dr. Kathy Stoner-Lasala

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise ...

The Prayer of Jesus

2021-2022 Confirmation Class

Our God Who is above, Holy is your Name; allow us into Heaven.

May your requests of us be completed in our lives,

as well as where you have spread your word.

Give us this time to fill our souls.

Forgive us for what we have done wrong

and others who have done wrong to us.

Don't let us follow wrongdoings and shield us from harm,
for your home is our home.

Almighty love and glory we give to you now and for eternal life. Amen.

Offering Our Gifts and Lives to God

Luke 6: 38

Jesus said, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

Thom Shuman, adapted

Invite God's grace, joy, and peace to flow into you so you may become like abundant trees planted by water; and then:
 share your bounty with the poor,
 feed all who hunger,
 shelter the tears of all who grieve,

January Session Highlights

- The Session welcomed new Elders to their first meeting – Peter Bawden, Kirk Christie, Nancy foster, Bev Koos, Dawn Hickenbottom, and Jay Williams, along with returning Elders Paula Burnett, Diane Roebuck, and Karla Ruitter.
- Approve the request for the baptism: Bennett Lane Downing, son of Patrick and Kristine Downing. Baptism date to be Sunday, March 20, 2022, with Rev. Dr. Kathy Stoner – Lasala officiating.
- Received a report from the finance Committee that the church ended the 2021 year with income over expenses of $12,000. This was largely due to lower-than-expected compensation expenses.
- The Session approved a 2022 budget presented by the Budget Committee. The budget is a deficit budget of $108,000.00. The deficit includes the necessary funds to search for, hire, and move a Head of Staff and a Christian Education Director. The budget discussion will be shared with the congregation at the Annual Meeting on February 27, 2022.
- Elders meeting with members of Presbytery of East Iowa (PEIA) organized as part of the reconciliation process reported on their meetings. One group is talking about how to best support our PNC. The other group is talking about improved communications. These discussions with PEIA are some of the final steps in the reconciliation process.

Bible Basics 201 – January 2022 Lessons

On January 19, we started the Yale series of 12 lessons on Women in the Bible. Women in the Bible | Study Mary Madgalene | Yale Bible Study. Bible Basics participants are volunteering to facilitate lessons from the series between January 19 and March 9 (7 lessons as we are likely skipping Ash Wed – March 2).

After pivoting to study Passover and Easter between March 16 and April 13 with a Holy Week recess on April 13, we may complete the series on Women in the Bible or choose another curriculum for the remainder of the spring.

From Von Maur Hall

February 13, 20, 27: Living in Community from PC USA's Follow Me series: When God looked at the first human in Genesis 2:18, God proclaimed that it was not good for the human to be alone and created a partner to provide companionship. Since the beginning, humans have lived in some type of community. At their best, these communities work together to share abundant life. The church is a living community committed to gathering together across differences, feasting and listening together, uplifting those in need, and supporting those who depart. This vision of believers worshiping God together as they learn to live a life worthy of the gospel is strong evidence that life in community is intrinsic to being a Christian.

Liturgists Wanted!

If you are interested in serving as a liturgist for Sunday services, please reach out to Diana Miller-Bur, our new Liturgist Coordinator.

But you ask:

What is a Liturgist?

Liturgists stand at the lectern, lead the congregation in all the responses and share the Word of God by reading the Scripture lessons.

How often would I have to volunteer?

As much or as little as you want, that is up to you.

Please contact Diana with any questions or with your interest. Her email is: diana.miller.bur29@gmail.com Thank you!! We hope to see you at the lectern soon!

Deacons' Paper Hearts Drive

Once again, the Deacons are sponsoring a toilet paper drive to benefit the Humility of Mary emergency shelter. From now until March 31 you may bring your toilet paper donations to the church; our Deacons will deliver them to the Humility of Mary Shelter services. Our goal is 1,500 rolls. Not shopping during the pandemic? Send your monetary donations to the church office. Our Deacons are delighted to do your toilet paper shopping for you! Let's demonstrate love in action by supporting this worthy cause.

December 2021 Financial Report

Calendar year 2021 ended with a positive financial outcome. This resulted from strong giving from the congregation and lower compensation expense than anticipated. Lower compensation expense was due largely to not having a full-time Christian Education staff member for most of the year. Non-compensation expenses for the year included purchasing multimedia equipment for Von Maur Hall and elsewhere in the church and establishing a reserve for future building maintenance expenses.

The Presbyterian Historical Society (PHS) is excited to announce a new subject guide to records related to Historically Black Presbyterian Schools.

PHS holds collections that document the educational work of Presbyterians among freedmen after the Civil War and the African American schools founded and supported by Presbyterian pastors and leaders. Several of these schools continue to flourish as fully independent institutions or through affiliations with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

The importance of these institutions can be heard in the words of former students such as the late Rev. Dr. Katie Geneva Cannon, whose story about attending Barber-Scotia College on the day when Dr. King was assassinated reveals a pivotal moment in American history and the history of historically Black colleges and universities (HBCUs). "I went as a Negro," Cannon said about life at Barber-Scotia. "I became Black, April 4th, 1968."

At HBCUs, students take on a new identity that shapes their world view as much as it shapes the way the world looks at them. HBCUs connect students to a network of students, faculty and administrators providing support as students and as individuals.

New Mission Opportunities!

Souper Bowl of Caring is Today, February 13!

Our Deacons will be in the back of the sanctuary following the worship service TODAY to collect your donations to tackle hunger. Look for the Deacons with the big soup pots! Last year the Souper Bowl of Caring topped $5 million - let's do our part to crush last year's number!

EXPO (EX-incarcerated People Organizing)

Quad Cities Interfaith is working with EXPO to support formerly incarcerated people to be restored to full participation in the lives of their communities. This project involves making phone calls to formerly incarcerated people who are now eligible to be restored as voters. Formerly incarcerated people are not automatically restored to their former voters' rolls, but not everyone knows this. These phone calls are to inform formerly incarcerated people that their right to vote has been restored and to share the contact information they will need to re-register to vote. If you're interested, contact Pastor Kathy via email here: stoner-lasala@fpcdavenport.org

Pastor Katie Styr's church in Milan and Refugee Resettlement

Pastor Katie's church, First Presbyterian Church in Milan, IL, has a refugee partnership team that is working to resettle Afghan Allies and other refugee families; the team would love to partner with First Davenport members in this work. World Relief has matched Milan's refugee partnership team with an established refugee household in the Quad Cities. One member of the household needs transportation to and from dialysis appointments on Tuesday/Thursday/Saturday from noon to 3:00. Volunteers can sign up for as many round trip rides as they wish – it's not necessary to commit beyond a volunteer's capacity. Volunteers must complete an application with background check, go to an orientation and be vaccinated. Here's the volunteer application:
